

The Information Architecture Institute

RECOMMENDATION

For: Steven Heitman, Information Architect, User Experience Designer

Mr. Crumlish said,

“Steven has made a serious, thorough study of Information Architecture, experience design, and usability. He applies his past experience in related fields intelligently and has worked hard to develop his expertise in his chosen field. As Steven’s mentor through the IA Institute, I have been impressed by his dedication and tireless efforts to improve and grow as a designer of user experiences.”
